

Family Update 12/27/2020

As of this week's testing, we have one resident testing positive in the skilled nursing center and one in the assisted living center. The affected residents' families have been notified. All recommended CDC and MDH guidelines are continuing to be followed.