

September 13, 2024

Today, the Sagepoint family is mourning the loss of three of our own special members. A tragic accident this morning took the lives of our driver and two adult day services participants. We are mourning the losses and praying for their families to be comforted. We also ask that you would keep the Sagepoint family in your prayers as we navigate the next days and weeks.